

Summary

This is a basic style of Disposition for use in the context of a sale and purchase of commercial property where the grantor of the Disposition is a partnership. The style envisages that the Property comprises an interest already registered in the Land Register of Scotland and that the grantor is the registered proprietor.